

PARADE OF WINNERS

This is a non-competitive event...one competes only with self.

PURPOSE

To encourage students and adults to read the Scriptures. There is no Convention competition for this award.

CONTESTANT PARTICIPATION

- A. Participation is open to all students and adults.
- B. Students attending the Convention must register as participants. Qualifying students and adults not attending the Convention must register to receive an award.

CONTEST RULES AND GUIDELINES

- A. To qualify, the student or adult must read either the entire Old Testament or entire New Testament prior to the convention registration deadline.
- B. The reading may be from any translation. Individuals may listen to audio tapes to qualify.
- C. All reading must be done within a 12-month period or less and must be done prior to convention registration deadline. Do not register for this event if the work is not completed by the registration deadline.
- D. A student or adult can qualify for more than one award in a calendar year by completely re-reading the (Old or New) Testament or reading the entire Bible prior to Convention registration deadline.

AWARDS

Awards will be given to those who met the requirements. If the recipient does not attend the Convention, the local team leader may pick up the award at Convention.
